The above referenced case is before this court upon the magistrate judge's recommendation that defendants' Motion to Dismiss and/or File Responsive Pleadings Out of Time (ECF No. 19) be dismissed as moot, plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction be denied, and defendants' Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Prosecution be denied.

This court is charged with conducting a de novo review of any portion of the magistrate judge's report to which a specific objection is registered, and may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendations contained in that report. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). However, absent prompt objection by a dissatisfied party, it appears that Congress did not intend for the district court to review the factual and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge. Thomas v Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985). Additionally, any party who fails to file timely, written objections to the magistrate judge's report pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) waives the right to raise those objections at the appellate court level. United States v. Schronce, 727 F.2d 91 (4th Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 467 U.S. 1208 (1984).¹ Objections to the magistrate judge's report and ¹In Wright v. Collins, 766 F.2d 841 (4th Cir. 1985), the court held "that a pro se litigant must receive fair notification of the consequences of failure to object to a magistrate judge's report before such a procedural default will result in waiver of the right to appeal. The notice recommendation were timely filed on May 29, 2013.

On August 23, 2013, plaintiff withdrew his Motion for Preliminary Injunction. On August 27, 2013, defendants withdrew their Motion to Dismiss and/or File Responsive Pleadings Out of Time. The remaining motion before the court is defendants' Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Prosecution. A de novo review of the record indicates that the magistrate judge's report accurately summarizes this case and the applicable law. Accordingly, the magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation is AFFIRMED, and defendants' Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Prosecution is DENIED.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
